TOWN TALK.

Considerable new blood was infused into the City Council this year, and much of the new blood came prepared to make a name for itself.

The name to be made was in the direction of economy, when, headed by Ald. Holliman, a raid was made upon the pockets of city officials to make up for extravagance in other directions.

The readers of the daily press are fully aware of the proceedings in this connection, by which fifteen per cent was struck off the salary of every official, save and except one alone, Patrick Mosher, J. J. J. J.

Gentlemen, when you were cutting down salaries why did you not serve all alike or is it a fact, as suggested on the street, that Mosher is a Roman Catholic and has an election "pull."

If that is not the reason, rise in your seats and give one as feasible.

The absurdity of the position is manifest, if we take a single case.

The city treasurer handles over $100,000 of money annually, with its consequent obligations, and is compelled to give heavy bonds; yet for this responsible service his salary was cut down from $500 per annum to $750, or $14.70 per week.

This was done on the plea that a man is worth what another as efficient can be hired for.

Mosher receives $107 per week, or more than half as much as the Treasurer, for swamping out the building, attending to the finances, and running errands.

Can it be truthfully stated that as efficient a caretaker could not be engaged at a reduction of 10 per cent, as was claimed in the case of the Treasurer?

This is a sample of the so-called economy of the Council, which results to next year's ballot box, and no better.

Simon Adam was a father, there has annually been a call for more appropriations for Catholic St. John, until the citizens have had enough, and in the same manner, if not to the same extent, without any probability of relief!

No doubt the residents of West Belleville suffer from water, but why should an economical Council be asked to tax Blocker and Foster Ward to drain Murney Ward, who the former are suffering in the same manner, if not to the same extent, without any probability of relief!

Drainage should be done by a frontage when they who dance would pay the bill.

The residents living on Bridge street have been asking for the privilege of building a drain at their own expense, having complied with the requirements; but for some unknown cause the petition is being tossed from pillar to post, until the municipality wash to know what the Council intend to do about it.

Again a grant is asked to open George street, when every one feels that it is about time the Council stopped opening streets, necessitating a continual outlay for all time to come for roads and walks.

The Committee from the Council who went to Toronto lately asked for the privilege of building that hallway of the Police Magistrate should be, which looks reasonable, considering that that beneficial Government give us the privilege of paying the bill.

It is needless to say that their request was not granted, and one of the evils of this system, by which tax payers are forced through the acts of the Ontario Government, is that a police magistrate is responsible to those who pay his salary is a police commissioner.

The evil is apparent when the people who pay for a reduction in the police staff and I'm told that the Police Magistrate takes ground against this needless economy.

Would it be the case if he was elected by the people who pay him, or would he be a mere tool, like the Mayor, who is looking for a vote and at next election when they draw the lot at Pat Mosher when a general reduction of salaries was in question.

FOOT BALL CHAMPIONS.

THE MUTES DEFEATED KINGSTON AT FOOTBALL DECISIVELY.

They kept up their record—Not a goal against them. This season. Other Sporting Notes of Interest.

The Mutes journeyed to Kingston yesterday on the Hare to play a game of football against the Kingston team.

The game was advertised for 2:30, but it was 2:15 before the teams "lined up." The following was the D. & D. L. team:

Goal—J. Parke.
 Backs—Jas. Chantler, R. A. O'Moore.
 Half backs—E. Symard, M. Noonan.
 Right wing—John Isbister (capt.), W. Smalldon.

Centres—John Chantler, Jas. Chambers.
 Left Wing—H. Hume, J. Henderson.
 Referee—J. W. Ward, Albert Gullies.

As the Mutes had to leave at 4:30 to catch the boat, only an hour was played. Kingston kicked off and for the first few minutes the game was pretty even, none of the Mutes being done by both sides.

About twenty minutes from the start the ball was fouled at some distance out of goal by a Kingston man. Isbister rolled the ball over and John Chantler scored by a neat shot.

Ends were changed shortly afterwards and Isbister, the Mutes' star, scored the Mutes' goal. Kingston's goal was frequently made, and three more goals were put through by the agile "Mutes' boys."

Five minutes after the kick off, a corner was allowed the Mutes, which was taken by Isbister. It was well played and only needed a burst from John Chantler to make a goal.

Of course, John did the "useful." A minute or two later Isbister again gets the sphere and by a swift long shot adds another score. Another corner was claimed and allowed. Isbister drops the ball alongside the bar, a Kingston back heads it, but the Mutes' star is well in it, as, as did the goal-keeper.

The D. & L. team left the field the winners by four straight, and further having the record of not letting a ball between their legs this season.

The Kingston team are an splendid gentlemanly lot of fellows and only require more practice to give a good account of themselves. They completed of not having some of their best men on yesterday.

Their backs were pretty strong, but the half-back line was weak. The forwards did some neat work.

The play of the D. & L. team was steady and effective and in the last half especially their combination was excellent. Every member of the team did his work and did it well, and Belleville city and league has reason to be proud of its champion team.

The news was recorded yesterday afternoon at the Institute with great rejoicing. The flag was hoisted and the pupils cheered loudly the victory of their champion team, who have gone through the season without a goal being scored against them.

"Well done, the Mutes!"

The cricketers will play their first game of the season at Picton on Wednesday next.

The 3-year old filly, was won by the Duke of Portland's Mr. Dunsford.

The grey pacer, Guy, who was the champion, but he holds the record for the fastest third, fourth and fifth heats—2:05, 2:08 and 2:08.

At the Hamilton Jockey Club, a race yesterday Waterloo and Mars ran a close race in a straight race, the latter being known on this side of the water. So close was the contest that in the run-off Mars won only by a nose.

The eastern correspondent of Clark's Horse Review tells of a clever piece of rigging that was perpetrated last week in which the mare Clonchette, 2:28, and Lady Marsboro, 2:24, were the prominent players.

London, June 2.—In the international billiard contest between Mrs. and Mr. Robert, the American champion, this evening resumed his play on the balls, which he had resumed at the mouth of a pocket last night. This evening he continued around until he had brought his total up to 100. He is now on the table up to 100.

P. L. Church, Kingston, has been expelled from the N.T.A. for rigging the billiard contest between Mrs. and Mr. Robert, the American champion, this evening resumed his play on the balls, which he had resumed at the mouth of a pocket last night.

The horse is owned by E. Philip, Fort Hope, and was spirited away by Charles Simpson, a longshoreman, who rode until the unlawful winnings have been returned and recording fee paid.

PROMISSORY NOTES, DRAFTS AND CHEQUES.

First Edition.

This little note book published by the author, Mr. J. W. Johnson, F.C.A., is not merely intended for the use of students at the Ontario Business College, but has been found to meet a want long felt by business men in supplying them in compact form and in a clear, practical manner, with all the knowledge that is necessary in the ordinary course of business regarding these most important factors in mercantile life.

From the first to the last page the book is replete with useful information, and is so arranged that it can be consulted at a moment's notice. It is a book of reference, and is a book of reference, and is a book of reference.

With regard to the different subjects under discussion, but gives, from a practical standpoint, a clear and concise explanation of the principles, so clearly enunciated, to be applied to any particular circumstance the reader may have in view.

Indispensable to the business man and to students at business colleges, it is also indispensable to the complete modern education of those who are now by law placed in personal full control of their own property, and yet have little knowledge of the principles of business.

The subject of contracts (written and oral), banking, lien notes, inland and foreign exchange, book-keeping, relating to bills and notes, and questions for review, are all treated in a brief but comprehensive manner within the sixty pages which constitute the book.

It forms one of the best examples of our improved modern educational system, and is a book of reference, and is a book of reference, and is a book of reference.

The work was printed in the INTELLIGENCER'S OFFICE and bound in leather covers. It is highly creditable to both branches of the establishment, as it shows great superiority over the last edition which was done in a leading establishment in Montreal.

AMUSEMENTS.

"THE FAST MAIL."

Lincoln J. Carter's company gave a fine production of the above play at the Queen's opera house last evening. The house was comfortably filled and all present seemed to enjoy the clever stage realism and mechanical effects—the chief factors in the modern melodrama—while the company, individually and collectively, left nothing to be desired. R. G. Stallard as the hero, F. P. Haven as Sam Smith, O. B. Travis as Philip Martin, Miss Emma Butler as Mary Martin and Miss Buckingham, clever comedienne, as Betty Ann, were the principal characters. Miss Buckingham's stinging was much admired and she was compelled to respond to two encores.

Manager Power is to be congratulated on last evening's pleasant entertainment. "Lost in London" will be the next attraction.

"LOST IN LONDON."

"Lost in London," a melodrama of merit, was produced at the Academy of Music last night before a good-sized audience. The story deals with the experience of a weak-minded wife who runs away from a loving husband to live in London.

A competent one. Newton Beers, who takes the leading part, is a very earnest and well pleased with his work. He receives satisfactory support from Miss (Miss) Hamilton. Incidental songs and dances are introduced and add to the entertainment. Miss Lovington, a general dancer. The piece will run all week, with matinees on Monday and Saturday. —Evening April 10, '93.

At the opera house on Wednesday evening, the 7th inst.

BIRTH MANCHESTER'S SLAYER.

Little thought that Joe Carrover is the county star.

PAUL RYAN, Mass., June 6.—Joseph
(Joe) Carrover, suspected of the horrible murder of Bertha May Manchester, is under arrest in the Central Police Station, charged with homicide. It is really amusing to the public, there appears to be little room for doubt in view of the developments made in the investigation.

Joe Carrover gave himself up to the police last evening, and at 8.40 o'clock until after midnight he was on his way to the police station. At first his story was a good one, but as the night wore on, he became more and more evasive. Contradiction and falsehood followed and he was ordered under arrest. After the investigation closed by Mayor and officers of the police department, decided that the public had a right to the facts in the possession of the police, so far as they could safely be given. To this end a statement was read in the case of the murder Carrover is charged with.

A French Canadian, shoemaker's store, and asked in broken English for a statement of the facts. He had been in Massachusetts for some time, and had been a sailor trade, light and apparently honest man. He had been in the city for some time, and had been in the city for some time, and had been

BELLEVILLE, THURSDAY JUNE 8
THE WARD QUESTION.

The reasons advanced by "An Interested Reader" on our yesterday's issue, for a reduction in the number of wards and of aldermen, seem to be very strong. If not wholly convincing, they are at least suggestive. The meeting of the Council at which Ald. Willis' resolution to that effect was defeated, was attended by but little more than a quorum of the members; hence it cannot fairly be regarded as decisive, so far as the Council is concerned. The subject should again be brought before the Council by petition, and if an adverse decision be given by that body, then it is final appeal be made to the ratepayers.

THE FINANCIAL SITUATION IN THE STATES.

The president of a prominent New York bank reviews the monetary situation as follows: "This is going to be a bad year from beginning to end. Mercantile business is carried on as to 90 per cent. on credit, cash is now going to have, in fact we are having, a severe contraction of credit, and cash is going to be called upon to do more work. House whose paper very rarely appears are in the market for money. I have never refused credit to any house which I thought entitled to it, but the plain fact is that there is not money enough to meet the requirements. There is plenty of money with a strong string to it, but there is not enough available for mercantile business. It is a matter of indifference from this cause, and failures that cannot well be guarded against by any banker. When credit undergoes a sharp contraction good and bad fall together. There has been a severe tightening of the money market. The kind of thing has gone on without a serious check for twenty years, and a very sharp and sudden check is now in order. There will be plenty of money with a string to it, but time money is and will continue to be scarce. It is not obtainable by many who are to all appearances entitled to it. We have barely begun to feel the effects of contraction. It will be much worse before we get through." With mercantile business among our neighbors on the rotten basis of 90 per cent. credit and but 10 per cent. cash, it is to be wondered at, not that there is a panic among our neighbors, but that it did not occur long ago.

Physician, Hoat Tryphon.

TORONTO, June 6th.—A physician of the County of Dufferin has written to a friend in this city about his complete recovery from a severe form of diabetes by Dodd's kidney pills. The doctor in question writes that he had given the pills to a patient of the Ontario Medical Council who had been given medicines to a patient of his whom he thought it unprofessional conduct for him to take the pills. He was cured by them—why that is the greatest triumph of professional etiquette. But more to the point, he has been cured by them. Modern physicians admit that diabetes, dropsy, rheumatism, Bright's disease, consumption, female weakness, and kindred blood troubles are caused by the diseased action of the kidneys, and that these diseases are only to be cured by a agent that acts directly on the seat of disease. This is why Dodd's kidney pills have proved a certain cure for all who tried them.

The Greatest Ever

One of the greatest discoveries ever made to the medical line for the cure of scap disease and deafness, is now getting introduced into this country, and placed on sale by the drug trade. There is nothing more easily taken than a cure of scap disease, and nothing more easily taken than a cure of deafness. Many remedies have been tried, but none have done so much in so short a time to stop this evil, but without effect. A specialist—one of the world's greatest scientists and specialists in deafness, of Vienna, Austria, has been successful in discovering Deafness, which is now on sale, and is at the same time most desirable to have. Ask your druggist for it, and why not? You get it for your friends, for all who may be in need of it.

THE GERMAN ELECTIONS

Had the Government a Right to Appeal to the Country?

BERLIN, June 8.—The North German Gazette yesterday had an article, evidently inspired in which it republishes the arguments of the Radical organs and those of the Conservative organs, and then, in support of Prince Bismarck, to the effect that the Government has no right to appeal to the country in the event of a hostile Reichstag being chosen at the coming election.

The Gazette republishes the attempt to show that the Reichstag is not the result of a decision of a supreme court, to which the Government owes loyalty, and that the Reichstag is not the result of a decision of a supreme court, to which the Government owes loyalty, and that the Reichstag is not the result of a decision of a supreme court, to which the Government owes loyalty.

Literary Notes.

THE ARCHA.

The June Archa is a mammoth number, probably the largest magazine ever published as a monthly issue of a review, containing 164 pages. It is a notable work in its class, for very able writers fill its pages. It has begun its eighth volume number.

THE CANADIAN MAGAZINE.

The Canadian Magazine for June is an excellent number, well illustrated, and in every way creditable to Canadian literary enterprise. It is published by the Ontario Publishing Co., Ltd., at the head of which is Hon. J. G. Macdonald, Minister of Militia, with Hon. Chas. Balfour, Speaker of the Ontario Legislature, as one of the Vice Presidents.

THE CANADIAN ENGINEER.

We have received the latest number of The Canadian Engineer, a bright monthly journal of 28 pages and cover, devoted to the mechanical, mining and other branches of the engineering trades. It is thoroughly Canadian in tone, every article has a practical purpose, and it gives an interesting account of Canadian news of interest to the trades concerned. Its design and typographical appearance are excellent, and it is a credit to the Canadian Engineer Co., of Ottawa, and to the Ontario Engineering Co., of Montreal, at $1 per year.

THE LADIES HOME JOURNAL.

If there is one object more than another in which ladies and women are interested during the summer months it is a lawn tennis, and no more competent to discuss the subject can be found than Miss Mabel Remond Cabell, the lady champion of the United States, who contributes a valuable article on "Tennis for the Ladies." The June issue of The Ladies Home Journal, published by the Curtis Publishing Co., of Philadelphia for ten cents per number.

TALKS FROM TOWN TOPICS.

That audacious and lively publication, Talk from Town Topics, is out again in its Midsummer Number, with a special $1.00 price for the month of June. It is a credit to the Canadian Engineer Co., of Ottawa, and to the Ontario Engineering Co., of Montreal, at $1 per year.

BELEVILLE, SATURDAY, JUNE 10
THE PATRONS OF INDUSTRY.

We copy, with general approval of the patrons therein expressed, the following article from the Intelligencer of Belleville, which is edited by Mr. Samuel Hughes, M.P.

Like the old Orange organization, there seems a tendency in the Patrons of Industry to branch off in lines that are sure to result in the weakness of their order. From an old member to the Western Ontario for the Patrons and have been in some places organized for years and have done much good. It is a very bitter letter lately to the organization. He maintains it was originally brought in to encourage association, and he is seeking to break up the Conservative party. He joined, says, hoping that such a union as a coalition of crops, markets, and kinds of grain, draughts, markets, and other matters of vital importance to the farmers, would be discussed, but after membership of upwards of two years he left the order, as did nearly all the rest in the locality.

True, by combining, he says, and paying cash to business men, and that, he says, goods were got cheaper than formerly, but he finds that by paying cash to his local merchants he gets what he wants just as cheap, it saves the trouble, loss of his time, and the loss of a dollar spent in expenses attending demonstrations, meetings and lodges, and he says, he saves the indignity of Order orators who are always forcing themselves on the order.

His letter further states that he again and again challenged their orders to publicly, but privately in their own homes, and that he was not allowed to do so. He says, he was not allowed to do so. He says, he was not allowed to do so. He says, he was not allowed to do so.

Does anyone deny the many men in this country, who are not capitalists, but who are hardy just to the Patrons.

THE VILLAGE ALIEN.

Blister ran in upon the blazing stuff, he had torn off his coat and wrapped around his head, and he looked and knocked the blades far out into the gravel walk and the grass. Two women were now beside him, it looked as if the house would go, the flames were burning merrily. The sound that most of the town would go, for a fine dawn wind was springing up. They brought buckets of water and a ladder, and used while Blister was whipping the fire with a shovel that he had caught from one of them. He contrived to command the women without losing a second, he made them pour water from the floor above, he fought like a hero. Suddenly a memory of the barflies was clear and sharp with him as he had remembered them for years; the spirit of war swelled like a trumpet's note within the little man, and his soul responded to its own cry for salvation of the women of his village.

It was a sight to see, the alien, old Blister in the world growing light, his clothes burning upon him like a furnace and smoked blackened, fighting at the close quarters of a death struggle, an enemy that was not his enemy, but a victory that did not save him!

The cry was light was pouring over the summer sea in a distance, sliding waves as when the last flame flickered out, and Blister fell amid the cinders as if he were dead.

The crying women—on a white one black and on a black one white—started to lift him, but her mistress caught her arm.

"A 't' Cindy," she said, "take his foot," and she pushed the servant aside, and stopped over the gleamy foot.

"Miss Jane," said the other, "I kin tell him by hisself. You're too trembly!"

"I'll help take this man into my house myself, A 't' Cindy," was Jane McGlash's answer; and together they lifted their burden.

"Into the spare room," said she in the hall. Her voice was clear and hard, while her face, falling like quiet rain on Blister's face, were making little white bubbles and streaks there.

In the beginning of the conflict, Mrs. McGlash had set her five-year-old daughter on the gravel walk from the front gate, out of harm's way, and told her to stay there. There she sat, crying lustily.

"Go over after Mr. McGlash," said Cindy, Miss Jane now commanded Aunt Cindy, "and take Jane with you, and leave her there; the children will look after her a while."

As the spoke was cutting his clothes away from Blister's dress and body, he burned. He saw this had better be done before he came to himself.

"Do you know the secret?" called Miss Pembroke to Mrs. McGlash, across the way, hurrying out to the front gate, while her breakfast was being put on the table.

"The town came within an acre of burning to the ground, lock, stock and barrel, last night," Mrs. McGlash's house was silent, and old Blister—Mr. Blister I reckon I feel like calling him to-day—put it out, and he got burnt nearly dead. Old Aunt Cindy came over hours ago to fetch Mary Bell to come home to fix him. They ain't got no idea how it caught. The children—Aunt Cindy's grandchildren and little Jane—had been plugging up some rubbish against the wall, making a playhouse, and that was where the fire began. You never can tell what children are up to; like as not they'd been trying to roast corn or something. There was a right smart south wind blowing early, and if Jane's house had got fairly caught—No! Cindy said they didn't think Blister was burnt dangerous. Yes; you're right; he's lucky to be in Jane's hands. Jane ain't smart, but she's mighty clever. It's a wonder I didn't see the whole thing. I was up and ran all over the house most of the night, and when I heard that poor thing scraping and bounding on that big kiln all the time, I was in a kind of company; but I lay down both day and night, and got to snoring after awhile.

"I never heard them say and down after eleven o'clock, but Mary says she never slept. I was up and ran all over the house most of the night, and when I heard that poor thing scraping and bounding on that big kiln all the time, I was in a kind of company; but I lay down both day and night, and got to snoring after awhile.

WALL PAPER!

With our facilities for showing and selling Wall Paper, one clerk can sell more goods than three could in an ordinary wall paper establishment.

BECAUSE

Our system is perfected by all modern ideas and our stock is perfect with the newest and most artistic paper hanging produced this year. Papers arrive in both design and coloring. That is the secret!

On Saturday our Wall Paper Department kept at work on the double, from 9 a.m. until 6 p.m. selling such Wall Paper as pleased each customer, and, being pleased, they bought quickly. That is the secret!

In other words, our six clerks on Saturday sold as much Wall Paper as could be sold by 18 clerks in an ordinary wall paper store.

Such an experience favors us each day of every week at this season.

THE WAY IT IS WORKED.

Additional conversation, overheard on the G.T.R., between one of the leaders of the "party of purity" (?) in West Hastings—some of its numerous defunct candidates—and a supposed Conservative "Whisperer."

Defunct Candidate—Say, what do you think of getting McCarthy down to Belleville?

Supposed Conservative "Whisperer"—Don't know, but the Catholics all right now for the local, but if McCarthy should come it would send them all to the Tories.

Defunct Candidate—I believe we will try and get him down. We will have Harry O'Leary, hang the local, anyway; what do you think of it? Harry's soap we are after; he's too popular with everybody.

Paré, Assn. Sec.; W. H. Nobes, Sec.; Teachers—Mr. Kerr as 2nd teacher, D. Foucher as Sec. Treas. and Mr. J. C. Brinson and gentlemen as assistant teachers. FIRE IN A SWEATER'S SHOP.

810 PANIC—ARMED MEN EMPLOYERS IN THE BUILDING.

A Bad Luck in Jumping—White Flashes were flashed from the building.

Three Killed in Jumping—One Woman Burned on the Fire Escape.

New York, June 13.—A fire in a sweater shop Tuesday morning following hours were lost.

Alfred Rodes, 28 years old.

Joseph March, 28 years old.

The story being told with sweater makers in the building early on Tuesday night at 8:30 o'clock this morning, and in the mad race to get out at the time three were killed and several injured.

Before the flames arrived the whole front of the building was alive with men and women. Flashes and smoke were issuing from almost every window.

Women were shrieking wildly, while people below in the street shouted to them to jump. One would make an attempt to go down the escape or through the manhole, when a dozen would pull her back.

Ald. Diamond gave notice of motion that he would introduce a bill to amend the law 569 introducing a clause viz: "That the meeting of Council do adjourn at 11 o'clock in the morning the 2nd day of July."

The Council adjourned at 12:20.

TREASURER TANNABILL RESIGNS.

He asks that he be relieved from his duties on July 1st.

When the resignation of City Treasurer Robt. Tannabill was read at the City Council last night by the City Clerk there was general surprise expressed among the members.

The City hall officials themselves were unaware of Mr. Tannabill's proposed step.

Mr. Tannabill said that his resignation takes effect on July 1st.

Ald. Wainwright expressed regret that Mr. Tannabill had taken such a step, which he believed had been brought about by largely false remarks that had been made during the recent discussion of the city's financial condition.

Other things the map recently furnished the city was incomplete and entitled such on the Treasurer as to make it impossible for him to discharge his duties without assistance.

Ald. Wainwright moved, seconded by Ald. Diamond, that the resignation of the Treasurer be accepted but that an effort be made to persuade him to remain in the city and that this Council do not express their confidence and respect to the record of his high estimate of his services to the city.

Ald. Collins wanted Mr. Tannabill's salary reduced.

Ald. Loth thought that if the Treasurer wanted to retire he should be released from his duties.

Ald. Robinson thought that his resignation should be accepted. He did not believe in a man holding an office for years while just as good men could be secured, and who were able to do the work.

The amendment was supported by Ald. Robinson. He intended that the resignation of the Treasurer be accepted.

BELLEVILLE ONTARIO WEDNESDAY, JUNE 21, 1893

RALLY OF THE REFORMERS.

THE BIG CONVENTION OF THE PARTY IN OTTAWA.

tariff Reform and Repeal of the Two Planks on Which Mr. Laurier stands to Fight. Sir Oliver Mowat and Sir Richard Cartwright were present.

OTTAWA, June 21.—At 10 o'clock yesterday a meeting of the Ontario Liberal Association was held, more for the purpose of discussing provincial affairs than business connected with the convention. It was thought advisable to take advantage of the large number of members of the association assembled to hold a meeting to talk over provincial business.

It is impossible at this moment to not rely entirely on the number present. The delegates kept pouring in from every quarter of the province, and the number soon exceeded the most sanguine expectations of the party leaders.

The convention formally opened at 2 o'clock with the hour set for speaking of the convention, it was 2:45 before the first speaker was heard. The platform filled with the delegates, and the audience was so large that many were obliged to stand.

The appearance of Mr. Laurier was the signal for a grand ovation and a cheer after which he went to his box, gentleman looked on. The speaker of the day was Richard Cartwright, Sir Oliver Mowat,
Hon. A. J. Macdonald, David Lawton,
Fielding, Borden, Langille, Power, Stuart, and some 50 or 70 other members
and delegates.

Order was called by Mr. Mowat, president of the convention, and he then introduced Mr. Laurier. Mr. Laurier advanced to the front of the platform and in a few well chosen words he said that Sir Richard Cartwright, Sir Oliver Mowat, Hon. A. J.
Macdonald, David Lawton, Fielding, Borden, Langille, Power, Stuart, and some 50 or 70 other members and delegates.

Sir Oliver rose to thank the convention
for the honor they had conferred upon him.
He congratulated them for the day they had chosen for the convention, and he said that he was glad to see so many of the party assembled in Ottawa.

He then spoke of the two planks on which the party stood, and he said that he was glad to see so many of the party assembled in Ottawa.

BELLEVILLE, WEDNESDAY JUNE 21

TARIFF FOR REVENUE ONLY

(PUBLISHED BY THE NATIONAL POLICE.)

In this figure and well-known brochure Mr. O. H. Mackintosh handles Mr. Dalton McCarthy without gloves. Emphasizing the fact that by Mr. McCarthy's own admission, his knowledge of his own party's policy was owing not to an honest conviction that their policy was honest, but to the laudable effort of his dignity in that he was not content with the policy of the present ministry, and to the fact that a Conservative newspaper dared to comment in rather sharp terms upon his apostasy from the principles which he had so long supported. The late leader of the party, Mr. Mackintosh trenchantly analyzes his political record, and shows that while posing as an out-and-out Conservative, he was in reality acting the part of a water on Providence, and on any prospect of personal aggrandizement or impulse of alleged self-esteem to turn his back on those with whom he had so long acted, and to whose success he had so long labored for such public consideration as he ever possessed, and even, as he is now doing, to play into the hands of those whose constant aim is to defeat the Conservative party, and to place the country in the hands of the industrial interests, and the very political enemies of our country at the disposal of the United States.

But let not Mr. McCarthy flatter himself with the idea that he can even accomplish the overthrow of the Government, and that therefore the management of our national affairs would fall into his hands. According to British precedent and practice, when the party in power is defeated, the leader of their opposition is summoned and commissioned to form a ministry. If, therefore, Sir John Thompson's ministry should be defeated, Mr. Mackintosh's representative will not cast the reins of government to an out-and-out enemy of the party, but will call upon Mr. Laurier to form a ministry—and there are too many hungry Grits to provide for, to permit even the smallest particle of power or patronage to fall to the lot of Dalton McCarthy.

Besides the complete exposure of the McCarthyite fall, Mr. Mackintosh presents an exhaustive vindication of the protective or national policy (the N. P.) of the Conservative party. While admitting that protection may be carried to an injurious extent, as in the case of the United States, and allowing that the details may require to be modified from time to time as circumstances alter, and even that some sacrifices may have to be made occasionally to popular feeling, he shows from authentic record that a wise policy of protection is the only sound basis on which the industrial and commercial prosperity of a nation can be established and maintained.

A Change of Name.

TORONTO, Ont., June 21.—The announcement has just been made of an important business change in this city, which will be noted with interest throughout the Dominion. The business of Dr. L. A. Smith & Co., manufacturers of Dodd's Kidney Pills, Anti-Dandruff, and other preparations will in future be conducted by a company to be known as The Dodd's Medicine Co. Ltd. There is no change in the management, but the formation of the company was deemed necessary and advisable because of the enormous increase of business, and the new name was chosen to identify the company with its most popular remedy, Dodd's Kidney Pills.

The company has found it necessary to enlarge its premises and build a large shipping warehouse, to accommodate the additions to its working staff, and to give increased facilities for shipping. Orders for Dodd's Kidney Pills are pouring in daily from all parts of Canada and the United States, and the company finds it difficult to keep up the supply equal to the demand.

The Greatest Yet.

One of the greatest discoveries ever made in the medical line for the cure of scalp disease and dandruff, is now getting introduced into this country, and placed on sale by the drug trade. Many remedies have been recommended from time to time to stop this evil, but without effect. A specialist—one of the world's greatest authorities on specialties in scalp diseases, of Vienna, Austria, has been successful in discovering Dandruff Pills, which is now on sale everywhere. Dandruff Pills will cure quick and sure, and is the same time most desirable to take, and who you get it tell your friends, that all may know how successful it will be.

Yesterday the usual closing exercises were gone through, when Mr. Mathison took the opportunity of giving the children a final address.
